

The Epistle of Jude

Part 2- Introduction

Sunday March 17, 2019 AD

Purpose Statement

To teach through the Epistle of Jude as a relevant topical book mark to keep us all in sober remembrance of the danger of false teachers who bring a different gospel, a different spirit, a different Jesus as we have been learning each week from God through the Apostle Paul to the church at Corinth and through Pastor Anthony to us here and now as the body of Christ and to encourage a corporate humility of mind and dependence on prayer in the Holy Spirit.

2 Corinthians 11: 12-15

But what I am doing I will continue to do, so that I may cut off opportunity for those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the matter about which they are boasting.

For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ. No wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light. Therefore it is not surprising if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their deeds.

Jude 1:1-2

Jude, a bond-servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James,

Bond-servant = slave

Luke 17: 1-10

To those who are the called, beloved in God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ.

Romans 8:28-39

Ephesians 1:4-14

John 17

May mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you.

LORD'S DAY 49

QUESTION 124: What is the third petition?

ANSWER: Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

That is: Grant that we and all men may deny our own will, and without any murmuring obey your will, for it alone is good. ¹

Grant also that everyone may carry out the duties of his office and calling ² as willingly and faithfully as the angels in heaven. ³
